

1.0 Introduction to Programming Concepts

This topic introduces the foundational ideas behind programming — what programs actually do and how to think about solving problems with code.

Learning Objectives

- Explain and apply the Input-Process-Output (IPO) model
- Develop structured programs using basic programming logic

Subtopics

The IPO Model

Input, Process, Output — how every program works

Programming Logic

Structured thinking and problem decomposition

